

Forum on Public Policy

Globalization: Conflict, Culture and Diversity

Volume 2 Number 3 2006

How Africans Could Develop Africa Through Education: A Theoretical Perspective: Sylvanus Amkaya-Nacheri, Richard Salmon and Lisa Driscoll	455
The Psychology of Acculturation and Globalization: Implications For global Security Agatha E. Carroo	475
Misunderstanding the Risks of Nuclear Terrorism: The Fact-fiction Disconnect Invites Exploitation Elizabeth Leigh Cralley and Brian Richard Wetzler	486
The Changing Face Of The Professoriate: Challenge And Potential For Diversity Among Faculty At American Universities Joe G. Delap	501
Self-Concept And Psychological Resilience In Children Victimized By Terrorism: A Review Of The Literature Gordon MacKinnon	507
Beyond Multiculturalism: The New Politics of Exclusion Sharon Miley	529
What Rough Beast: Intergroup Tensions in the Age of Neo-Diversity Rupert W. Nacoste	556
A Policy Analysis of the African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA): Who is Really Benefiting: Africa or America? Kristie Roberts, Abi Awomolo, and Aundrey Somerville	570
Judicial Review, Democracy And The War On Terrorism Ralph Ruebner, Robert Gray and Heather Voorn	595
The Logic of Ethnicity in Africa: Erosion of the Ethnic Identity in State-building Santosh C. Saha	629
The Problem of Cultural Diversity in the 1 st World: Should Society Also Adapt to Diversity? Joseph S. Sankoh	665
Globalizing a Gated Country: Immigration Policy Debate in the United States Kenneth L. Stewart	693
National Interest Vs. Globalization: Differing Historical Perspectives Since The 18 th Century Leon Waszak	706
A Time for Self-Examination: An Exploration of the Church's Role In Promoting Diversity in the United States Sheridan T. Yeary	748